“ Aunt Marge & Uncle Katz were always so much fun to visit ... and my late parents, Dean & Emma Berger visited them fairly often. I remember Aunt Marge & Uncle Katz's black cocker spaniel, "Bunny" and the "Cat-face Clock" that was in their kitchen on Creston Road. Aunt Marge really liked her sweets (custard pie and chocolate candy ... she informed my wife & me early on that she did NOT like the nuts and chews and would prefer just the soft-centered chocolates when we sent See's candy from Southern California). Aunt Marge will be missed but I think she had a wonderful 95 years here on earth ... I'm sure she's with The Lord and many family members in Heaven now.
