“ I had the true pleasure of working with Mark for a few years as his dispatcher at Dart Transit. Mark was a first-class guy who worked hard for me and for our company. I had tremendous respect for his professionalism and I know he'll be sorely missed by his friends and family. He was always a true gentleman. RIP, Mark!!

“ Betty, Melissa and Staci, I work in New Martinsville, WV for Bayer and Mark would come in nearly every day for an order and he would always manage to brighten up our day. Many times he would have to wait but he never complained and we all enjoyed him hanging out with us. He was an honest to goodness great guy and I'm glad that I got to know him. Please know you are in our prayers. David Jack

*Dear Family -
I am so sorry for your loss. Mark was one of those guys who was a friend for life once he met you. Never without a word about something but he never made anyone feel stupid or small. When I first moved to Cambridge, he quickly became my friend. He will always be remembered in my heart! Ralph and Peggy Portier*
