“ I remember Martha and Marjorie...‘the Bell sisters’ ...by meeting them on outings with my parents. My father, Charles [now passed] and my mother Marylou often talked with them at yard sales or gatherings. My contacts were mostly hearing them chat about the past and times remembered. Smiles were shared and they parted until the next event--all part of what makes life go on day to day. They are both missed by a few of us remaining but hopefully they are all occasionally meeting, smiling and chatting in another realm and we will join them again one day.
