“ Sending Love and prayers, knowing God's Comfort for Brenda, Todd, Michael, Tori, Josie, Aja, Lori and all the family. Martha will be very missed. She was such a kind, dear woman - regularly extending an invitation to come sit and talk, while sharing something delicious to eat that she'd made herself. Blessings of Divine Peace for the Knauf family.

“ What a special Lady, I am so blessed to have met her and her wonderful family! I don't think Martha knew a stranger, and was sharp as a tack...she remembered names better than anyone I have ever met. Anyone who had the pleasure of meeting her instantly became a friend, because she was such a positive being. My thoughts go out to the family, and may she rest in peace with Harry!

I knew Harry and Martha from S.E. Med where the unselfishly volunteered. They were always smiling and seemed so happy as a couple. IN June, 2018, Martha was a pt. and told Carol, the hospitals Chaplain she missed me! I wa s with a family member who was a pt. I went upstairs and we had a great visit and prayer. She is again with Harry and they are smiling!
