“ To the family of Mary Jane Lorimer:

My husband and I are very lucky former kindergarten students of Mrs. Lorimer.

I remember going to kindergarten at Garfield School and walking into that old building and going to her classroom. What a fun place that was to be. I remember the toys we played with, the fat crayons we colored with and the snack she served right before we came home - a little paper cup with milk and a cinnamon graham cracker - not the whole cracker, just a fourth of it -and that left you only wanting another one!! So you couldn't wait to come the next day - maybe that was the idea!

I recently saw Mrs. Lorimer as my Dad was at the Victorian Oaks for several days after having surgery. I got down on my knees to speak to her as she held her head down and I told her who I was and that she was the best kindergarten teacher and that I always remembered the milk and cinnamon graham crackers she gave us. She lifted her head and looked at me. I hope it sparked a good memory for her as I will never forget how wonderful a time that was for me.##imported-begin##Mr. and Mrs. Randall L. “ I have known Mrs.Lorimer most of my live. She was my kindergarten teacher at Garfield. I would see her at the nursing home when I would visit my grandma. I would stop in to see her and Mr. Lorimer and tell her she was my favorite teacher. And she would smile!! She was a very special lady.##imported-begin##Teresa Clark##imported-end##

“ I had the great honor of knowing Mary Jane, while living in Cambridge. She was a dear friend. I truly loved her dearly. She was an inspiration to all who knew her. We attended 1st Methodist Church together, her devotion to her parents was beautiful. She was a tireless worker for so many organizations. The Salt Fork Festival she would be there, eyes twinkling, ready to help any where she was needed.. She shared her faith, through her servies. Mary Jane was beyond reproach, in all areas of her life. I will miss know she is still there, but know where she is know, that is great comfort.##imported-begin##MM Peggi Girard##imported-end##
