

Mary Lou Whiteleather

August 21, 1936 - May 8, 2018

Mary Lou Whiteleather, age 81 of Cambridge, passed away on Tuesday, May 8, 2018 at her home. She was born on August 21, 1936 in Minerva, a daughter of the late Emmett Kryder and Jesse (Woodard) Kryder.

Mary Lou was a 1955 graduate of Minerva High School and attended Wooster College. She was protestant by faith and had worked as an office manager at her husband's family practice. She later became a CNA and worked at the House Loreto in Canton. Mary Lou enjoyed snow skiing, camping, reading murder mystery novels, watching television, vacationing at the Outer Banks, and especially spending time with her grandchildren who lovingly called her "Moo".

Mary Lou is preceded in death by: her parents; the father of her children, Dr. Richard Freed Whiteleather; a sister Doris (Harold) Kryder Morrow; a brother Robert Kryder; two sons, Bradley Scott Whiteleather and Todd Allen Whiteleather; and a son in law David Brian Kuhlman.

She is survived by: two daughters, Renee (Chuck) Whiteleather Burgess and Michelle Kuhlman; a daughter-in-law Jeri Renee Whiteleather; grandchildren, Kristen LeBeau Burgess (Leo Polasky); Kelly Brooke Burgess, Leon Endsley; Erin Lynn Kuhlman, Andrew Scott Kuhlman, Carlie Rose Whiteleather, Ashton Scott (Kristen) Whiteleather; several nieces and nephews including a special niece Jennifer; and Mary Lou's beloved dogs, Macy and Bogey.

Private family services will be held. Mary Lou's online tribute wall may be viewed and signed at www.bundy-lawfuneralhome.com.

“ Dear Renee and Michelle,

Of course, I was only a teenager living next door in Cedar Hills when I knew your mother. She was a young mother of little children at that time.

My thoughts and prayers are with you ---- do let me know should your travels bring you to the UK, my husband and I live in south eastern Scotland --- just over the river tweed from England.

with love from,
