“ We called her Aunt Mary for a reason. My parents were her and Uncle Dave's best friends and raised their children together in the early years. Our families were inseparable. They had the gift of hospitality and so I have many memories at their home and Aunt Mary was always cooking and Uncle Dave managed the grill. You could pop in anytime. My family has been living in Fl most of my life but we visited when we could and Mary was the best letter writer, sending pics and updating me with the Cambridge news. Uncle Dave, Betsy and Phillip and families, I am so sorry for your loss but your memories will live in your hearts. She will be missed. Blessings and Prayers, Kim (Kimmie) Phelps Rogers

I remember when I was 11 or 12 when her Mother, Audra, was my Sunday School teacher at East Cambridge Methodist Church. Mary was going on a date, probably with David. Her Mother tried to be say the usual things, we were sitting on the grass (I can remember). I am sure she was a good cook and her Mother, Audra, was so funny....she used to play different parts to the Annual Mother & Daughter Banquet. I can remember the 'good old days' Her mother was a good cook, also. Mary E, Burris Jackson-Srode. Many Blessings from the Lord, above.
