“ I loved my mother so..
She taught me right from wrong, love and laughter, and being a good Christian;
She allowed me to make my mistakes and taught me also to learn from them.
She loved me unconditionally, and I never really had closure.
I don't think either of us was ready for that. I don't believe children really have closure with the death of a parent. I miss my mom terribly. Not a day will ever go by that I will forget she loved and was loved..and she enjoyed fishing and be a fisherman for Christ.
Your favorite daughter,just kidding, Chris Bates and family

“ Dear Kathy, Christine & John and families. Our condolences go out to you in the time of your sorrow. Aunt May was always there when we needed her the most. I know when my dad passed she would have been there if she could and her heart was larger than life itself.
She will be missed. Love, Brenda and John Starinsky##imported-
