“ RIP Mike - you were so good to me whenever I showed at the "Longbranch" for dinner after a long exhausting day of work at the CP Cambridge Plant - especially after flying in from the Piscataway NJ Technology Center that same day. It was a home away from home. Your shrimp cocktail and prime rib with a side of cauliflower with melted cheese was the best ever - especially after 6 Beefeater and tonics! Your bar decorations were one of a kind! Sincerest condolences to the family - so sorry George. Thank you for great memories of Cambridge Ohio. Dr. Tom Connors - retiree Colgate-Palmolive Company

“ Perhaps they are not stars, but rather openings in heaven where the love of our lost ones pours through and shines down upon us to let us know they are happy. Captain Mike always pointed out clouds in the sky that resembled things, as we swam, in the water, at Salt Fork, off the boats. We were blessed to know Mike, and honored to call him a friend. Rest in peace, Captain Mike, and thanks for all the wonderful memories!
