“ Rob,

you were good friend back in the day and taught more about guitar than I'll ever be able to learn again. When I heard the news I stepped into shock and I haven't stepped out yet. Rob you will be remembered by me forever and I wish we could turn the clocks back because you are missed and loved, with no words that could express the regret and reflection I'm sure evryone feels.

“ Death is a Door beautiful poem about a dark subject

Death is only an old door; set in a garden wall On gentle hinges it gives at dusk when the thrushes call

*Along the lintel are green leaves
Beyond the light lies still Very willing and weary feet go over that sill*

There is nothing to trouble any heart; nothing to hurt at all Death is only a quiet door...in an old wall.
