“ I am so sorry for your loss, nobody should have to go through this. Michelle and her family will be in my thoughts, I will always remember the kindness I was shown when I was invited to stay over during my exchange year and I will always remember Michelle as my dancing partner in the Knight's Tale and the joy she always showed in drama. I wish there was more I could do.

I remember her smile had this sweetness to it that you don't see often. She found such joy in making others happy. At last years Duff' Camp 2011 she played in the creek with my children for hours catching salamanders for them. What a generous and thoughtful and loving sweet girl. I will so cherish every memory I have. Thoughts, prayers and love to all left behind!

“ To the family of Michelle,
She was a very sweet young girl I worked with her at Deer Creek Motel. She was a very hard worker and we all loved her. She will be sadly missed by so many. I would give her a ride to work at times when she needed one. May you R.I.P Michelle
