“ We were blessed to have Nancy and Mark as good friends when Jane had cancer they both unselfishly took time out of their schedules and made trips with us up to the James, they made the trips very enjoyable, under not so pleasant circumstances, it's speaks highly of the kind of people they are, Nancy was very knowledgeable about what was going on and did her best to help us when we needed it the most, don't know how we could have made it with out her that's just the kind of person Nancy was, she will be missed, may God bless her

“ Nancy lived next door to me when she lived with her dear grandparents. We shared lots of adolescent “secrets” such as Hair styles and how to straighten My curly hair (iron it). We also shared female questions and answers ; she had some answers and I had other answers as we had friends at different schools and sought answers from those friends (only girls would understand this)!! We played, did each other’s hair etc... very good memories . We played mostly outside or at her grandparent’ s home as I had younger brothers and sisters that interrupted us and made noise . Later , she and her mother moved to a small house across the street Before returning to the midland / East Liverpool area . I am rambling about memories to which you can’t connect but simply know that when I read her obituary I was saddened but flooded with fond memories I also noticed that donations were requested to a hematology research. Unfortunately , I have a leukemia named CML and I felt a connection after reading this obituary .
God bless you all .

“ *Mark and Mathew,
I find it so difficult to express my sad feelings right now. I have known Nancy for so many years and am devastated by her passing.
She was such a beautiful, loving and caring person. Her love for both of you was unmeasurable. She will be so sorely missed as she was loved by so many. May your wonderful memories help you through this most difficult time. God Bless all of you. Heaven gained a special angel. Fly high my friend. ❤️ 🙏 🙏 🙏*

“ *Mark and Matthew,
As I sit here attempting to put pen to paper, I find it difficult to hold a thought for any length of time, as my mind flashes through so many wonderful memories with Nancy when we were all together throughout the years. It's hard to imagine so much time has passed , and this is where we are today. My heart is broken for you both, and I know words don't even begin to help but know your in my thoughts and prayers. I'll miss her terribly. With Love , Steven Dearth*

“ I am heartbroken over the loss of my dear cousin, Nancy! So many memories come flooding back. Today, my brother reminded me of the 8mm movies my parents have that show Nancy pulling my sister around on a sled in the snow with our dog chasing after them both. Not a care in the world. Little did anyone know the battle she would face as an adult for 7 long years and those carefree days were gone. Her faith in God helped her to be strong but she had grown tired. I spoke to her 3 days before she passed (through text messages) and she told me to not be angry. She said she had accepted that a cure for her was not meant to be and that she would see me again one day. I can't stop the tears from flowing. Not only for Nancy but for Mark, Matthew, Karissa and her pride and joy, Grayson! She told me she prayed so hard to live long enough to see Grayson, and she did, but I wished she had gotten more time with him. My heart is with you , Mark and Matthew. I take comfort in thinking that she's with Aunt Norma and Grandma right now. Love to you all!!

“ I met Nancy years ago, we met at my garden center. She was a great customer and we visited and talked during her trips there. Our sons went to school together and we would visit at different school functions etc. we were also fb friends and enjoyed pics of our grandchildren. My deepest and heartfelt sympathy goes out to Mark, Matt and his family. May god bless you and help you in all the days ahead.

We met Nancy when we worked at the Area Agency on Aging. She always had a kind word and a smile for us. As a wedding gift she gave us a bottle of Dean Martin wine which we still have 21 years later. Our sympathies go out to her family.
