

Naomi Lorene Sheppard

February 25, 1919 - March 27, 2012

Naomi Lorene Sheppard age 93 passed away Tuesday, March 27, 2012. She was born February 25, 1919 in Canaanville, Ohio to James Anthony and Mary Ellen (Stuergill) Easterling. She was a long time resident of Fairview, Ohio where she was a member of the United Methodist Church serving as church treasurer, and adult class sunday school teacher for many years. A retired teacher, she spent most of her 25 year career teaching 1st grade at Old Washington Elementary School. Art, crossword puzzles and reading were some of her favorite pastimes.

Along with her parents, she was preceded in death by her husband, I.H. (Bill) Sheppard; two brothers, Riley Easterling and Donald Easterling; and three sisters, Viola Poston, Mary Frame and Charlotte Beal.

She is survived by one daughter, Sue and husband Randy Larrick of North Canton; one son, Jim Sheppard of Columbus; and two grandchildren Greg Larrick & Kristin Larrick Kane and her husband Kevin; one brother, Dennis Easterling and his wife Esther of Lewisville; along with ten nieces and nephews.

Lorene was an extraordinary person and will be sadly missed by friends and family.

“ What a great lady! I had the priviledge of having her as my first grade teacher, plus I enjoyed many conversations with her during my adult years. I hope I'm as spunky when I'm ninety as she was!
