Patricia Ann Perry (Boyd)

Cambridge --- Patricia "Pat" Ann Perry (Boyd), was called home suddenly, on Wednesday, July 2, 2014, while residing at the Red Carpet Assisted Living Facility in Cambridge. She was born May 21, 1945, in Princeton, Indiana, to Arthur and Dorothy Seals.

Patricia (Pat), was a wonderful woman with a giving heart. Her love of helping others was apparent in all she did and she served them with a smile that brought happiness to her family, friends, residents and care givers. Pat was a Baptist by faith and spent endless hours with her mother and great grandmother (Lilly) at the First Church of the Nazarene in Mt. Carmel, IL, as a child and young adult/mother.

She was once active in the Red Hat Society serving as secretary, featured as "resident of month" at Maple Heights Apartments and again at Red Carpet Rehabilitation and Care Facility. She earned a certification in Medical Office Management which led to various roles while caring for others and again leading team workers to perform with pride. As a wife and mother of six, she served her husband and soul mate, Jack Boyd of Mt. Carmel, Illinois, along with their six children with her many gifts and talents, which included art by design, gardening, a knack for seamstress work, and never to be forgotten meals and baked goods. Her love of being with family and friends was well known along with her passion for seeking out unique jewelry. Pat is predeceased by parents Arthur and Dorothy Seals, her two sons, Ronald and Kevin Boyd, and her former husband Jack Boyd. She is survived by Kim (Jim) Lafferty and their daughter, Krystal Ann Lafferty, Brian (Pam) Boyd and their sons, Kevin, Cory and Shawn, Dotty Lane and her daughters, Tara and Jackie, Tricia Hughes and her sons Justin and JR, daughter TJ, sisters, Barb (Bob) Farmer, Joyce Perry, Kathy (Ted) VanMater, and brothers, Frank (Risha) Seals, Butch and Danny Seals. She also leaves nine grandchildren and six great grandchildren and several nieces and nephews.

Pat will receive her wishes of a private family ceremony and a celebration of her life in Mt. Carmel, Illinois, and be laid to rest with her husband Jack and their sons at the Oreo Cemetery while a vocalist, embellishes the ceremony with her favorite hymn "Amazing Grace" on Saturday, August 30, 2014.

“ Where does one begin to share a lifetime of memories of their one and only that brought about their being and would move the earth and the sky for them if they could. While struggles sometimes found us, we marched forward always believing that good would come to us if we believed it would happen. Faith was always at our door and miracles occurred before us that there are no words for, and we accepted each as a gift. Forever she will be my mom, the one that could melt my heart with the smile she has carried since she was freed from her burdens. She lost some little ones early in life and lost her way as almost all moms would, but she found the courage to keep smiling and reaching out with a kind hand and gave all she had to those she touched. This is what we remember - your smile, your hugs and all the little things that you were so happy to have. You touched me and you led me. You leave me behind so I can share all your gifts until we meet again. I'm blowing you kisses over the moon. I love you. Your forever friend waiting to see you again.
Your first born, Kim

“ Pat and I spent many days together in our wilder years, and again when she lived at Maple Heights Apts, where she also became friends with my sister Peachy who also lived there. Pat was one of a kind, and anyone who had the pleasure of knowing her was given that great gift of friendship. She had a beautiful spirit, loved her family very much, and I can still hear her fantastic laugh now. Heaven has gained another wonderful Angel, I'm sure there were many friends and family waiting with open arms for her. I guess when you have a feeling that you should go visit with someone as I did for Pat, you should listen. I felt that I wanted to go visit Pat, was missing her, two days before she passed, but I never made it there. It's my loss, not to have that last visit, Pat I will see you again someday, and I know you will be there to greet me with a big smile and open arms, Thank you for the Honor of being your friend. Love, from Joann Shreve

Krystal's affection for her grandmother was admirable for a young girl. She valued their relationship and took grandma to lunch a few times along with running errands, helping with chores and what ever it took to keep her in her sweet apartment. A great day for both of them - anyway, since grandma got cake!
