“ Grandma pat was always so full of life. Oh how she would grill us at 5 am for seminary all her hard work in teaching me I was honored to make her proud in recieving the golden certificate for her patients with me falling asleep at the kitchen table and her constant girls pay attention when dawn and I would start talking. She loved her cats they were her children also. They made her smile and cheered her up daily. Oh and those next day store sales from holidays going at 4 or 5 am before most would arrive. love you grandma pat.

“ I was very young when I first met Aunt Pat. She and Uncle Malc were coming to the family reunion. She had on a sun-dress with the most beautiful blue cabbage roses. I had never seen a dress so beautiful and couldn't keep my eyes off of it. I thought she was the most beautiful woman I had ever seen. During the music she sang and oh did she sing.

Grandma Pat, you are really going to be missed. You really treated the kids you baby sat like they were your own. Daniel really loved you, and he loved it when you took him with you to Columbus. You are where you are not in anymore pain. Love you very much, Scott & Marcella Calvert
