“ I have many fun memories of Pat! I remember being maybe 5 years old and sitting on his lap while he let me steer his bright orange speed boat. What a thrill!!!

I remember being mesmerized by him burning sage in his basement.

I remember how his house smelled.

I remember putting up hay on his farm in my 20s. He worked ne hard, and we had a good time. He played a Bob Dylan album while work in the hay loft. Highway 61, what a great album to be turned onto to, thank you Pat! He payed me in tires once because he was worried about my safety.

I remember him playing his dulcimer for like 2hrs straight in my parent's office. It was great!

Rest easy.
