“ Hi Patty, I'm very sorry for the loss of your mother. You really aren't losing anything. She will ride along with you forever. I remember a few years ago when my dad passed and we gathered as a family where you are now gathering. Your mother visited and she blessed me with a wonderful peaceful moment that I still remember. May you have peaceful and wonderful moments remembering your mom. I promise you will.

“ Terri Dally
I'm a childhood friend of Patty's and grew up in the neighborhood. Steele's was the place to hang out. Peg would always have a house full of kids, ball games in the backyard, or a kitchen full of little girls making chocolate chip cookies. She even let us build an A frame clubhouse in the backyard! But, the one thing she could not tolerate was grape gum. She could have been upstairs, and if one of us walked in chewing it, she'd yell down, "who's chewing grape gum in my house?" It was crazy, but we all loved her!

“ I loved Peggy and will always recall her face when she laughed! She would get so tickled! Peggy recently told me that Karen and I drove her crazy during our "formative years." With Peggy's sense of humor, I don't think she would have wanted it any other way! I believe she relived her younger years through our antics or at least some of them! I will remember you every day, Peggy!
