“ When Randy came to Colgate Maintenance, he joined my team as a 'newbie' & soon became a much-appreciated teammate. I could always count on him to be there by my side, whether replacing a frozen gearbox in the tank farm or tearing into the high-voltage precipitator above the base plant.
Ann, my thoughts & prayers are with you & your family. May you find comfort in knowing he is now at peace. George Chappell

“ I always enjoyed my talks with Randy, we had many over the years of working in maintenance. We were never on the same team but always seemed to end up working overtime on each others teams. From guitars and music to guns and ammo we covered it all. Sharing beliefs and theories about almost anything you can think of. Randy always had a wise perspective on whatever it was, never a boring conversation. His wisdom is and will be missed in the shop. A great friend indeed and I could tell from the way he spoke, a proud father, grandfather and husband. I know the loss I feel must be ten fold for his family, friends and dogs. Rest in peace brother, you have earned it.

“ I don't even know where to start. Randy was a great man and loving husband, father and grandfather. We wouldn't see each other for years but when we would see it's each other, we talked forever like no time has gone by. He would always get a glow when I mentioned Ben's name or any member of the family for that matter. He will be truly missed. Thoughts and prayer for Ann, Ben and the rest of the fam. RIH Randy
