“ Randys family moved across the street from our home when i was around 10 years old. And we have been friends for 67 years ever since. Growing up Randy and I spent our summers at Buckeye Lake fishing, and catching frogs in farm ponds around Cambridge. We spent many summers riding motorcycles, boating, sneaking into his dads liquor cabinet occasionally and creating many memories that we would reminisce about whenever I came back to Ohio and visited him and Terri, laughing so hard I would start wheezing. I will truly miss my friend until we meet again someday.

“ I will never forget how kind him and Terri were to my Mom having her to dinner after she became a widow, weekly dinner. Just last week Randy replied to my post on fb about cousins being the best. The best of all wrap up was when he and Terri and myself found Jesus and we entered in relationship, not religion. To be a brother or sister in Christ is the ultimate. RIP Randy. You are present with the Lord. See you soon.

“ Too many stories about Randy-not enough room on this page!! Motorcycles, cars, and Wooly Monkey!! He was one of a kind. Lived beside him as toddlers and when the families moved-we were just around the corner from each other! So, I have known and appreciated him all my life. Great guy and will be deeply missed! Rest in peace, Friend! Jerry Morris

“ Randy growing up you were like a father to me from the time. I was a sophomore to my senior year in high school. We always sat in your basement joked around watch TV mostly watched us play video games and always eat good food at your house you and your wife or angels. I can remember finding out my junior year, making the all ECOL team in your basement and I all celebrating so many fond memories with your family and you, Randy. I viewed You both as a mother and father figure & I believe a lot of kids did And I know I speak for a lot of kids that grew up in that area. We have some of the fondest memories with you, Randy some of the greatest laughs. You didn't treat us like kids treat us like young men, and you were part of my life that has evolved and the person I am today. What a great man my prayers go out to his family and my brothers.
