“ Bob and I are so very sorry to hear of Reba’s passing. She was such a wonderful neighbor. I relied on her a lot, especially after we moved away; she always kept me informed of happenings in the neighborhood and around town. She was always there with a helping hand. She and Bill were the neighbors that came to our door to wish us the best, right before we moved away after 30 years in the neighborhood. She will be missed.

“ Reba will be greatly missed by many at Trinity Baptist Church. I will also miss her as a dear friend who was always there to listen in times of despair and sorrow as well as sharing in the joyful times. She and her husband, Bill, were treasured mentors and encouragers. I love you, Reba, as you live on with our Lord and Savior, Jesus! I'll see you again when I come home.
