“ Words can't express my sorrow. We have been friends for so many years. Your family always welcomed me into your home and I was always grateful. I remember as young girls riding the school bus and talking for hours. You always took the time to visit with us at the fair and always made sure we were having a good time. I hope we can meet again some fine day. My love and prayers go to you and your family.##imported-begin##Gary & Theresa Neuhart & Family##imported-end##
