“ Almost two months has gone by and some of us are just now hearing about this huge loss. If any family or friends still see this, I offer my sad heart to you. Renee, if you can see this, you know how your spirit helped me. A dream of you led me to this site. I don't know if we ever would have seen each other again in this world, but I'm certain of the next. Love, TJ##imported-begin##TJ Whitehair##imported-end##

“ My sincerest sympathy goes to you, Paul and Denise. I think of Renee everyday. There is a small wooded area behind St. Ann's where I work, a running stream hides there and I like to sit by the edge on my dinner break. I listen to the birds and think of her. Just the other day I saw a ground hog and a hawk and thought of Renee's smile and her love for animals. I miss you, Renee. Love, Gretchen##imported-begin##Gretchen##imported-end##

“ My prayers and condolences to Renee's family. My first memory of Renee is from kindergarden at Lincoln, when I copied her 8's and our teacher Mrs. Wells was upset with me for it. Our friendship followed through gradeschool and junior high, with countless sleepovers, phone calls, hanging out, and good times. She was one of the coolest friends a girl could have growing up, and I'm glad she was one of mine. Even though our lives took different paths after high school, there was still an occasional "hello" and it was always a treat to get to see and talk with Renee. I am thankful to have known her.##imported-begin##Vicki McCracken Parsons##imported-end##
