“ Bubba....my son-in-law....I hope you died knowing how much I loved you and how happy you made Kelsi. She was never happier than she was with you. It still amazes me at how much alike you two were! I think you were the same person. I wish you were still here but am very happy that you two are together. Please take care of her since I can't. I love you my sweet, sweet son-in-law! Love, Jill!!! ”

“ Im Never Gonna Forget You Bubba! You Had A Smile That Could Just Brighten Up Everyones Day, Oh & That Laugh, Everytime I Heard You Laugh I Couldnt Help But Laugh Myself. You Were The Bestest Friend ANYONE Could Have When We Were Young, Even Tho We Grew Apart I Will Always Remember Us Swinging On The Swingset Or Riding Are Bikes Around (You Could Always Do Better Tricks Than I Could). But Are Daily Thing Was All Us Lore City Kids Going To Viks & Getting Candy(We All Know How You Loved Ur Candy). Ill Never Forget You Bubba, Ill See You At The Crossroads. Live It Up, Up There With Kelsi. R.I.P. Bubba & Kelsi. My Thoughts & Prayers Are With Both Familys.

“ I will never forget the talks Bubba and I had when we worked together once. Or the times when I was working at Little Caesars, he would always come in and make some funny comment. Which would make my day even better. Atleast, you will get to be with the love of his life together forever, in the eternity of God. Forever loved and never forgotten. I will continue to pray for your family & friends.

“ I did not know Richard personally, but I shopped at the Dollar store in Derwent on my way home from work on occasion. He would always talk to me when I was checking out.
I enjoyed his humor and his positiveness about life. He always had a smile on his face and was always so friendly. Any parent would be proud to have him as their son.
Without a doubt, he was a shining star!
