“ I had the pleasure of knowing and being a friend to Bill, Bob and Richard (AKA Dickie, AKA Rowdy) "back in the day" in Cambridge. Richard had a quick wit, great sense of humor and was always ready with a timely pun. We had some great times together. Rest in peace, old friend.

“ Rowdy was a good friend/man. Softball, cards (usually Eucher) or just hanging around. We were young, once.

“ So many memories and such a little space. I remember this one time in electronics class, well maybe the one where Dick was asked to go to the board during Algebra or Geometry class, when Sister Lionel wanted him to demonstrate how he got his work done on a problem without showing the detail or his new found way to get to the answer. After he demonstrated this process, he was summarily asked to take his seat. I am sitting here smiling thinking about her holding her teachers edition over her crossed arms and not smiling.

How about all the times sitting on the front the porch or in the back shed, with Bobby, Tom and Dick as they taught me how to play euchre. I think I funded a lot of trips to Harold's for all of them.

We had so many experiences of life in a short period. I am better for having had him and all the Huntsman's in my life. One cannot have a memory of Dick without a smile and nod. He was my friend.
