“ Grace and Family,

You have been in my thoughts the last few days. I am sure it has been hard saying good bye to Max, but it sounds like it has been a time of fond memories and family togetherness. I'm sorry I wasn't able to be there personally, but Steve has shared many stories with me and I am so glad he was able to be there with you. You all mean so much to him. You continue to be in our prayers.

“ Dear Grace, Pam, Debbie and Doug:
I am very sad to learn of Max's passing. He fought the good fight. He was a strong, upstanding, righteous man, with a kind heart. He made his mark in life with all of you. I'm sure the Church and the Community is proud that such a man lived in our town.

Henry Wadsworth Longfellow once said: "There is no death! What seems so is transition; this life of mortal breath is but a suburb of the life elysian, whose portal we call death".
