“ I'm sorry I couldn't be at Dick's services last week. I want to send my sincere sympathies to all the McCoy family. We grew up together running the neighborhood in Fairdale and remained friends through high school. I thoroughly enjoyed catching up at the CHS Class of '71 reunions. I'll always remember his laugh! Dick as a sincere and genuine a person as I've ever known. His presence will be greatly missed. Bill

“ I graduated with Dick. He was the ultimate human being. The best of the best in kindness and always had a smile to greet people. If I didn't see Dick when I was at Orme's it would be a shock...It didn't matter when I was there, I don't think there was ever a time when he wasn't. We all, at this age, begin to think about our own mortality. But Dick was a picture of health. So, he brings to me, a heightened level of awareness, how important every day is with family and friends. For sure, he is in a better place. And if there is a hierarchy in Heaven....I'm pretty sure, he is on the uppermost level. Rest in peace. Because when you walked your way through this place called earth, you left it a better place just because you were Dick McCoy.....

“ My heart is saddened at the passing of a dear friend 'n business associate, Dick McCoy. He was a true friend to many out there in the business world. I don't believe there was anything he couldn't do. This is such a great loss to the Do It Best hardware world, as they have lost a true hero. He was also personally, a great friend 'n mentor to my brother, Gerry Kenney, when he was COO/manager of the Do-It Centers here in Zanesville. There wasn't anything Dick didn't know about doing business...'n he was always willing to lend a helping hand. Even though I am retired now, I often thought I would have liked to work for such a man...but unfortunately now, I will never get that chance. Men such as Dick McCoy are few 'n far between...'n because of that, we will never forget him. Hopefully, the people's lives that he touched have learned from his knowledge, 'n in that way, his legacy will carry on. Rest in peace, Dick...it has been an honor to have the opportunity of knowing you here on earth. - Shirley Hayes, former employee of Sunrise Do-It-Center.

“ My sympathy and condolences go out to Dick's family during their time of loss. To me, Dick "was" Orme Hardware and like their slogan, "Do It Best", he always did it "his best". His knowledge, assistance and expertise were always much appreciated and was such a big part of why I frequented Ormes throughout the years. Whether it was purchasing the perfect lawn-mower or just picking up a few screws, Dick would always take time for you, answering any questions you may have had, no matter how big or small. That was the type of professional and the kind of person he was. I certainly enjoyed the conversations we shared and I was also very grateful for the friendship we had. Dick will truly be missed.
