“ We are sorry we couldn't make it to the viewing or funeral due to some difficulties with my pregnancy, but we both want you to know our heart is torn with you, and we have been holding you up in prayer as we know this has to be the most difficult challenge you've faced in your life. Our deepest sympathy is with you. May God bless you, and somehow in His big plan use this situation for His Glory. Our prayer is that He will hold you in His everlasting arms and comfort you.##imported-begin##Donald & Donna Fogle##imported-end##

“ I had the honor of being a teachers aide in Robbies classroom when he was in the 8th grade at Woodfield Elementary School. Robbie was such a good student and a fun person. I enjoyed working with him. He was a real nice boy. I will never forget him and all the good times we had.
My sympathy to his family.

“ Jim and Teresa,

Our heart breaks along with you at this moment. Our God is good, but the things that happen sometimes just can not be explained. Our prayer is that you find Jesus walking hand-in-hand with you through these days as He explains to you those mysteries of life and death that only He can say. Our prayers call out for God's comfort for you. In Christ, Gary and Kay Hicks##imported-begin##Rev. Gary and Kay Hicks##imported-end##

“ I have many memories of Robbie, but some of my favorites are when I used to carry him everywhere because he was so cute and tiny. He was definately old enough to walk, but I treated him like he was my real live babydoll. Every Sunday after church I'd pester him or he'd want me to see what toy he'd brought with him in the van. Then there was the time when my uncle had his big bull mastiff at my house and Robbie wanted to pet it. I couldn't figure out why, because I was afraid of it. The dog was way bigger that Robbie, but he got right in the back of the truck with it and wasn't afraid at all even though it looked like the it could eat him. I've missed all of you Porter's since you moved to other churches, and I don't know what to say. It seems so unreal to me. I love you and may God hug you all just as you've been there to hug me during the good and bad times in my life. I love you and miss you all.

Sincerely,
