“ Dear Ron, Becky, Ann & Mary Kay,

I cannot imagine what you all must be going through; and I am so sorry for all you are going through.

Robert, like the rest of your family, is someone I never ran into that didn't have a smile and a kind, fun word to share.

I am praying you feel the arms of Jesus holding you up as you go through this. You are in my heart.

Love you all,

Wendy (Guthrie) & Tim Powell

“ After reading about the passing of your son, Robert, Jen and I would like to convey our sorrow. Our two sons are close in age and probably knew Robert. Jeff is 48 and lives in Freeport ME, and Scott turned 46 and lives with his wife and two children in Auckland N.Z. while he completes his Ph.D. work.

I remember how great it was to work with you at the Sears Catalog store. It is always a pleasure to think of the outstanding job you did there.

These are difficult, challenging times and you are in our thoughts. Hang tough as you work through them. Your friend, Dan Navicky

“ I worked with Rob for close to 29 years at the Highway Department although he worked at the Cambridge post mostly and myself at the outpost in recent months we kind of renewed an old friendship. I enjoyed working with Rob, joking around and having as much fun as we could, when we could, with the rest of the guys.

A few months ago he and I agreed to lean on each other to help us to get through the time we had remaining working at the county until we could retire, but that was not God's plan. No one ever knows why things like this happen. I know that I will always remember Rob and, God willing, we will see each other again someday.

May God bless and keep his Mom, Dad, Jaelyn and the rest of his family. Give them the peace and strength to face this time in their lives. Rob, you will be missed by all of us at the County Highway Department.

We lived next door to The Combs. I recall Robert being quite young when our son Brad and Robert decided to have a kool aid stand on the sidewalk in front our houses. Not sure who drank the most lol. Makes me smile thinking about it. Lots of wonderful memories watching the Combs kids grow up.

Karl and I, Barb, are friends of Mary and Chris. They always spoke so affectionately of Robert we feel as though we knew him. We certainly knew he was deeply loved by Chris and Mary and that Jaelyn must be hurting so deeply. We send our sympathy from Michigan along with our love and prayers for peace in this tragedy.
