“ It is with deep sadness I learned of Bob's death. He and I went to school together from the third grade at one room Slaughter Hill School till we graduated High school in 1949 from Cambridge High. His wife Evelyn and I were best friends. Lots of good memories and good times will live on with me.. May God bless his family now. A life well lived. Rest in peace dear friend.

“ I will always have great memories of my Uncle Bob. When we were little, whenever I went to the Meat Shop he would give me a cold weiner from the meat case. Yummy! Always had a smile and a hug for me and all the kids. Love you all.
