“ With deepest sympathy on your loss. I met Bobbie at a concert that both of our grandchildren was in. We talked the entire concert when the kids wasn't playing. She was easy to talk to. Such a wonderful lady. May God Bless the family. Rest in Peace.

“ Bobbie and I were really good friends for a short time. She was a kind, nice person. She always treated me so caring. Loved her. One one the nicest people I ever had as a friend. As our family got bigger we lost touch with each other. I believe at that time she was coming down with her deadly disease but we didn't recognize the symptoms. I am so sorry for you Harry and the rest of the family, especially you Debbie. She was a wonderful person and she will be missed. Rest In Peace Bobbie. I will think of you often. Dorothy Adamik.

P.S. I just learned of her death today 10/30/2019, otherwise I would have been to the services.

“ To the Family of Bobbie Hitchcock my deepest condolences. It's been many years since seeing any of you but I recognized Bobbie's name as soon as I heard it. I hope this finds her peace. It's so hard to let our loved ones go even though we know it's what is best for them. Hoping that all your memories and the joys you've shared with her carry you thru pain. Wishing you all love, peace and support needed at your time of need.
Much Sympathy
