“ I lived across the street from Ron and his family on north 10th street in Cambridge while I was in grade school and jr. high. Ron was two years older then I was and he used to tease me relentlessly. We had some great times and I have fond memories of those years. The last time I saw him was about 1980. We had the oppertunity to sit down and catch up on each others lives. He was a childhood friend who will never be forgotten. My condolences to his family.
