“ Rose was such a sweet lady. I so enjoyed our talks. My mom Wilma resided with her at Victorian Oaks and the Beckett House. Her family has my deepest sympathy.

“ Her daughter, Bunny, was a BFF when we were children and I spent countless hours at Rose's home. I most remember the ability to talk with Rose on (what I perceived at the time) an adult level, She listened to my goofy childhood "theory" and always appeared interested in what I had to say and was always such a sweet soul. I know she will be missed dearly by her family, but I hope they know that their mom and grandma did make an impact on folks while she was here on this Earth. Love to all <3
