“ Brent and Janie, Your mom may have been short in stature but she had a heart ten feet tall. She was like my other mom while we were growing up. She will be missed greatly by all who knew her. My sincerest condolences to both your families. Your childhood friend,
Mike

Jane, Although I never knew your mother, I have always heard only the best things about her from others. May you find comfort and peace during this difficult time. Just remember that she lives on in you and those whose lives she touched.
