Mom was so excited to see her. She talked about it for days. I truly understand your loss having lost my mom the 15th of October. Thinking of all of you brings back wonderful memories. “ Seeing both of you, Chris and Steve, at the funeral home last night brought back so many memories. It was also nice to meet your families. Your Mom and John have always been such a part of our lives in this family. I remember when your Mom and Dad brought some of the DeMarco family to our farm to watch cow milking. I could go on and on about Uncle Deb and Aunt Minnie, and especially Everett and Laura. Everett had so much patience with Mom Bond and Laura. He drove them clear to California once. He kept me from getting in trouble for letting the air out of my Dad's trailer tires once. He and Laura were so proud of you. My Grandma Mom Bond loved you all so much. We saw your Mom in town often and always had a few words to say to each other. The last time was at Olive Garden a few weeks ago but I read where Diane and Mom saw her at Cracker Barrel lately, too. Mom passed on the 15th and your Mom was a couple weeks behind that. I can envision Mom and your Mom having a good visit now. They are newcomers in heaven...and yes, they are probably keeping their eyes on us!!

“ Steve,

Iâ??m very, very sorry about your loss.

When I think of your mother and your father for that matter, I think about how dedicated they were to the band boosters and to music in general.

I know they were very supportive and proud of you and Chris. I also remember putting my drums in your momâ??s big Pontiac when we were in jr high school and her taking me home from a performance.

I was hoping to stop down for visitation but my schedule wonâ??t allow it.

My thoughts are with you and Chris,
