“ Please accept my deepest sympathy for your loss. During difficult times like this, My Husband and I have found comfort from reflecting on Bible's hope for our loved ones. Psalms 116:15 says they are certainly precious in God's eyes. Therefore, God has made a provision for our loved ones. Acts 24:15 says, "and I have a hope toward God which hope these themselves entertain, that there is going to be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous." We look forward to this time and sincerely hope that your family may find comfort and strength from God's word.
