“ i've been trying for several days to think of how to put into words what this lovely woman's life meant to me (and to my mama), and I keep coming back to the word "hospitality" in the true Christian sense. We always felt welcomed and loved when she opened that front door, by her bright smile and hugs, and yes by the boatload of good food that she had lovingly prepared. (This woman could cook...pumpkin pie and trays & trays of Christmas cookies) We could bring friends with us, and know she would welcome them as well. When we were little, we knew we had to behave, but also knew that she would love us even when we didn't. And while her family was #1, she was also devoted to her Church, and I suspect that she showed that same caring and respect to her work colleagues and friends. This woman made a difference in a lot of people's lives. "They don't make them like that anymore." If I make it to the other side, I hope we are able to recognize Angel Ruth, because she will be there - and maybe she can put in a good word for us with the Lord in the meantime.. Hugs to the kids and grandkids, and love always..
