“ Tom, Joyce, Fred and Families:

Regrettably we learned of your Mom\'s passing too late to respond by coming to calling hours or to the funeral. We truly wish it had been otherwise, as we would have preferred to express our condolences to you personally. Please accept our deepest regrets and sincerest sympathies with her passing.

Your Mom was a wonderfully special Woman that I, in particular, have the fondest memories about?.simply as ?TJ?s Mom?. I guess the most recent memory I have, and I know that this has even been awhile ago, was speaking with her at length at the Guernsey County Fair when she was doing good works, by volunteering at the Schoolhouse there on the grounds. We had some nice long chats with her there...it was truly enjoyable to see here there and to be able to reminisce with her for awhile.

We have some additional thoughts to pass along when we can speak with you personally, but until then, we leave you with a verse that we hope you will find comforting:

*Forgive my grief for one removed,
Thy creature, whom I found so fair.
I trust she lives in thee, and there
I find her worthier to be loved.
In Memoriam A. H. H., by Alfred Lord Tennyson*

*With love and friendship,
Gordon & Nancy Share
