“ I am truly sorry to hear of this news...Sally and I developed a friendship years ago at Hall's Ice Cream...she was so fun to talk with and really genuine..a laugh that would fill the room and a smile worth a thousand words.. since leaving the area we lost touch..but I know if I saw her today we would just pick up where we left off!! She was a "kind" heart...God rest her soul

“ I was sorry to hear of Sally's passing. We became good friends at the Wednesday afternoon group at AllWell in Cambridge. As senior members of the group, we set the proper example for the rest to follow. (She would've laughed so hard this. It was our mission to make each other laugh as much as possible.) I had a few health issue and had to leave group for awhile and by the time I got back, she had stop coming because of a falling at home. I eventually stopped going to the group because it wasn't the same without my buddy there. I'm so sorry that I never got to meet any of her family. I know she loved you all so much. My deepest sympathy goes out to all of you. Sally was one of a kind.

“ It's been a number of years but got to know Sally through Mary Margaret and Sally was simply a blast. Her own worst critic and to that I want to tell Sally that she was fabulous, had a knack of making me laugh and it was a gift. I will remember her fondly and with a smile.
