“ Oh Sam, so many memories. Some good some bad. I have tried to forget and forgive all the bad. We spent so much time bickering and fighting. Despite it all I know you always loved me and the boys no matter what. Deep down you had a good heart and I got to see that side that not everyone sees. I try to just remember the good. We share a son and I have to be strong and make sure he is ok. I will make sure he always knows how much you loved him. Please watch over him and all of us. Keep him safe! We love you and you will be missed! ❤️

“ Where do I start there's so many memories. Like when we was 13 years old and we both got threw out of the house. Or cutting science class together at Meadowbrook in the 9th grade, the funniest was when Sammy got a mattress for me to jump out of the window onto in Buffalo because my mother would not let me outside lol. Or another time when he just shows up at my house in 2016 then I have to drive him back to Buffalo (home) and I get stranded. The laughs we had over the years. I'm going to miss my dear friend my football buddy Go Steelers. Much love and respect ❤️
