“ My heartfelt sympathy goes out to ALL the Hill immediate and extended family. My family and I were part of the Hill family for 23 years. Sam and Maxine were my in-laws who I loved very much. I was married to their son Tim for 22 years and we had our son Mitch. Mitch will carry on the Hill name with his two children Kyler Jo, and Ledger Burton. Sometimes we don't know why things happen~All we can do is hold on to the love~memories~and each other!!! May God protect Sam, and console his family during there grieving time. It is harder for those left on this earth, then those who go home to the Lord. Sam and Maxine will always be in the eyes, smile, tears, heart and soul of there children and grandchildren. May he rest in peace. Godspeed, with much devoted love, Marilyn Hill-Randa and family

“ My sympathy to the family. Sam and I went to school together at Slaughter Hill and Cambridge and were neighbors on the East Pike. My Mother was our teacher in that one room school for three years. We remained friends all these years. I have a wood angel he made me. I get it out each Christmas and think of him and our old days gone by. God Bless. Sincerely, Martha Rose (Steele) King

Dear Tina,
I am keeping you and your family in my prayers.
What an honor it was to be a part of your Dad's healthcare team.
He was such a nice man and will be remembered fondly.
May The Lord Jesus be with you and your family during this and the following days ahead.
