“ Sandy and Bill were the first neighbors we met after moving next door to them on Shrewsbury Rd. Every Christmas Sandy would stop by to see what Santa brought our young daughters. To this day, I still hang the homemade tree ornaments Sandy made, and I can remember her fondly when doing so. One year she gave us a key to their house, while they were going to be away, so we could hide a new bicycle in their basement so the girls wouldn't discover it before Christmas. I loved following her on Facebook during the years she spent in Florida - she always seemed to be active and enjoying life, which is how I will remember her, along with fond memories every year when I decorate the tree with her ornaments. My sincerest condolences to Doug and Beth and their families. Becky

“ Sandy and I have many shared years of friendship and memories together starting in the med 1960s as neighbors and original members of the famous Shrewsbury Road Bridge Club. I treasure her friendship and was able to tell her so in our last chat two weeks ago. I know she passed in peace with love in her heart for her kids and grandkids.

“ I lived near Sandy in my condo complex and talked with her often when walking my dog, Meggie. She always loved Meggie and gave her pats every time we went by. Wonderful person! I'm so sad to read of her death.
