“ Sherry was a very special person and I was lucky to be her friend. She & I shared the love of dogs, gardening, and cross stitch. She had a wonderful sense of humor that got her through some tough situations. She & I often sent internet postcards back & forth and wrote letters the old fashioned way. I will miss her terribly. And am so sad to lose her. May she rest in peace & quiet.

“ I knew Sherry and her parents and brother many many years ago. She was just a young lady who had parents that adored her. I know sherry ' s mom - June loved her children to pieces. So did her dad Charles. Her eyes would shine talking about them at our job every day. I remember when Sherry married.

Sherry had a very sweet disposition. I used to tell her she reminded me of her mom and I could always see how they resembled each other. And now it's hard for me to think that Sherry has grandchildren. Time went so fast. She is at peace. I bet her dad was waiting for her at Heavens gate. To her family, you can still talk to her and she will hear you. You now have a beautiful angel watching over you. God Bless.
