“ Shirley was a tiny lady with a big heart. I met her through book club. She was an avid reader. I am sure she read over a billion books in her life time. She was very intelligent and a magnificent seamstress. I will miss her interesting comments and book recommendations and most of all, I will miss her presence each month. She can say without hesitation: I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith. 2 Timothy 4:7 Till we meet again.

“ My condolences to Aunt Shirley's family. I remember her as a talented woman and was amazed at her beautiful sewing. She was always very kind toward me and we sent Christmas cards to each other for years and years....I'm so sorry for your loss.
