“ Norm:

Very sorry to read about Stella's passing. Never had the opportunity to meet her but I know from listening to you talk about her she was a very special person.

Please know you and your family are in my prayers during this difficult time. You, of course, have my deepest condolences.

“ I live next to Tootsie’s daughter Tracy. I have lived vicariously through their families relationship. It’s been amazing to see all of the traditions, hear all the stories, see the girls in matching outfits from Grandma. And to hear the joy in all of their voices when they talked about going to see Tracy’s parents at the lake house. I’m glad I got to help make the polish soup one year! This is so hard to imagine.

“ Tootsie was always so generous to me. Opened her home to me and fed me like her own. I am so sorry to hear of her passing. She was a devoted mom and wife and I know she will be missed immensely. I can remember how she loved her little dog, Chippy and I hope they are together again in heaven. May she rest in peace. All my love to Tracy, Carol, Donnie, and Mr Blanchard and their families.
