Teresa, Pam, Connie and David, so sorry for your loss. We had never met Stephan, but I know he must of been a wonderful man, father, step-father and especially a great husband to your wonderful mother. As kids we loved coming to your big house on the hill, I can still remember Connie doing cheers out in the drive-way! What wonderful memories were made. Love, hugs and prayers to all of you including Stephan's children and family.
