“ Sturman was a man of God! Sturman and Shirley were so kind to stop in frequently to visit my mother, Dorothy Gebhart, when she owned and operated the Cambridge Christian Bible Book Store called the "Book Nook."

They were not only faithful to God, but were faithful customers at the store. Sturman and Shirley wanted everyone to have their own personal Christian Bible, and be followers of God and his Kingdom. Prayers to Shirley, beloved family, and Brothers and Sisters through Christ. Rest in Peace Sturman. You have been a faithful and devoted Servant.

*What a day that will be
When my Jesus I shall see
And I look upon his face
The one who saved me by his grace
When he takes me by the hand
And leads me through the Promised Land
What a day, glorious day that will be (in the second person)
There'll be no sorrows there
No more burdens to bear
No more sickness and no more pain
No more parting over there
But forever I will be
With the one who died for me
What a day, glorious day that will be
What a day that will be
When my Jesus I shall see
When I look upon his face
The one who saved me by his grace (but when he)
When he takes me by the hand (takes me by the hand)
And leads me through the Promised Land
What a day, glorious day that will be
Oh, what a day that will be
When my Jesus I shall see
When I look upon his face
The one who saved me by his grace (but when
When he takes me by the hand (he takes me by the hand)
And leads me through the Promised Land
What a day, glorious day that will be
Thank you Sturman, the Lord's faithful servant.*

“ *Sturman was a friend that you could count on. There will never be another pastor who was more faithful to his flock. He was always there when anyone needed him. He even did my dad's service, though he barely knew him. He also was the best visitation pastor ever. He met everyone's needs.
Shirley, Joe, Jenny and Ben- you are in our thoughts and prayers. Sturman will always be in all of our hearts. We love you all.*

“ Shirley and family, my heart aches for your loss. The impact of Sturman’s passing is felt by many, especially me. I was blessed to have him as my pastor during a time of great need and I can honestly say, had it not been for him, I would not have the relationship with God that I do now. His faith was contagious and his never doubt attitude completely changed my life as a Christian. I have drawn from his words of wisdom countless times throughout my life and I will continue to do so. He was without a doubt, the most anointed pastor I have ever encountered and that grin of his couldn’t help, but make anyone smile. I remember Sturman saying in one of his sermons how he wanted to hear the words, “well done, good and faithful servant” from God. I have no doubt that he is hearing those words now. God bless you all for sharing him with so many.
