“ Dear Mami, Rajiv

Our thoughts and prayers are with you in this time of sorrow. I will always remember Suketas beautiful smile and good nature. I really enjoyed the little time we spent together when she visited us for one of our family weddings. I remember how full of life Suketa was and how much fun all of us cousins had in the presence of her company. I wish we did not live so far from each other and could be there for you right now.

“ Mrs. Patel and Rajiv,
My sincerest condolences on the passing of Suketa. I fondly remember her as such a delightful young lady with such a beautiful smile who was so kind and thoughtful to everyone. In working with her in our student/guidance counselor relationship, I was so impressed with her diligence and attention to detail in any project or task she undertook. I enjoyed our conversations and interaction. Please know you both are in my thoughts and prayers.
