“ I met susan in june 2016 , my husband is staying next door to her on dewey street, she was sitting on her porch and we started talking, i felt a sweet spirit from her right away, im a believer in jesus so our connection was immediate and we shared with each other our faith, i kept in touch when i came back to florida, i did not know she was in the hospital until after finding out she passed , i really wished i could have spoken to her one more time, so glad i got to meet such a sweet lady, RIP susan , I will get to know you more in heaven.
