“ I am so sorry and grief-stricken at the news of dear and sweet Tabitha's passing. I found out yesterday - November 18, 2025. My prayers and thoughts are with all of Tabitha's family and friends - especially her beautiful mother, Jen, her beautiful older sister, Marly and her handsome younger brother, C.T.. May God be with you all and comfort you all.

Mary Garner - November 19, 2025 at 08:03 PM

And also condolences to her husband and 2 sons. My heart breaks for all of you.

“ Tabi was one of my best friends from middle school (2013) up until she passed away. We were pregnant with our second babies together. I wanted a boy, she wanted a girl and we swore we would trade babies if we didn't get the gender we wanted (jokingly of course). Anytime I cooked up something good or just needed a friend, my daughter and I would go see Tabi and her boy and snack and talk. We were due 2 weeks apart with our babies. I miss you lots Tabi. You were the most beautiful kind soul anyone has ever met. I wish you were still here and that our babies could have met and been besties like we were. Love you lots!

“ So much I wish I could say to you. We had the best times together, not a day is going to go by that I don't think of you for something. Im going to miss you smile, your laugh, your crazy complimenting mine. Thank you for making us family, being my "sister," loving my kids. They're gonna miss playing with their aunt tabi. Be at peace my Tabi, something you so deserved and never found here. Love you, beautiful.
