Tammy was such a good friend in high school. I was so happy to see her at the Ladies of 77 dinner at Theo's and to reconnect on FB. My heart is heavy to think of the reunion as the last time I'll see her. We got to talk of slumber parties and party barn events. So many fun times. She spoke of her children, grandchildren and husband with love and of being in a happy spot of life despite the cancer. Please know my thoughts and prayers are with you today and in the coming days as you journey through your grief. I am sorry not to be able to come this evening.

I did not know her but I know Bruce and his family. I knew her mom Barb, and her aunt and uncle Betty and Bo Haynes. I am so sorry for the loss. She was so young. My prayers are with you, Bruce, and the family for strength and peace.
